EMERGENCY, ASSENTED TO MOTION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAR TELEPHONICALLY

Non-party State Street Bank and Trust Company respectfully submits this assented to motion requesting leave for its counsel to appear telephonically at the status conference the Court scheduled for Tuesday, May 29 or, in the alternative, to continue to the conference until Friday, June 1, 2018. The reasons for this motion are as follows:

1. On the afternoon of Thursday, May 24, 2018, the Court issued an order directing State Street's counsel to appear at a status conference on Tuesday, May 29, 2018 to discuss the request that two former employees living abroad, Simone Paul and Krystyna Beck, and a lawyer formerly associated with one of State Street's outside counsel, Sarah Lewis, who also lives abroad, provide testimony by videoconference.

2. State Street's counsel, John J. Butts of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP, is the lawyer who can best speak to the issues the Court would like to address. Mr. Butts is unable to appear at the conference in person due to a previously scheduled out of state trip on another matter, which cannot be rescheduled.

3. State Street respectfully requests that the Court give Mr. Butts leave to appear by telephone.

4. In the event the Court requires State Street's counsel to appear in person, State Street respectfully requests that the Court continue the conference until Friday, June 1, when Mr. Butts is able to return to Boston.

5. Counsel for the Government and the Defendant have each assented to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE STREET BANK AND TRUST
